UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

U.S. DISTRICT COURT E.D.N.Y.

RE: United States v. Amanda Hendrickson
DOCKET #: 13-CR-188
FOR SENTENCE: Pending

LONG ISLAND OFFICE

DELAY IN PRESENTENCE INVESTIGATION/
REQUEST FOR INACTIVE CASE DESIGNATION

The above-named defendant pleaded guilty to an offense involving narcotics distribution.

The Probation Department has learned that the defendant has entered long-term in-patient rehabilitative treatment. She is therefore unavailable for interview.

In light of this situation, the Probation Department respectfully requests that the Court permit it to place the case in abeyance status, meaning that the case would be inactive for our purposes during that time. The Probation Department will make periodic inquiry of Defense Counsel Anthony M. LaPinta as to the availability of the defendant for interview. In the alternative, Counsel is urged to contact the Department if it is learned that she has completed her treatment, so that the Court can be notified and the case can be reactivated. Of note, Assistant U.S. Attorney Lara T. Gatz and Mr. LaPinta are in agreement that an abeyance designation appears appropriate at this time.
